UNDERSTANDING THE DATA

Elspeth Harris

This report presents your results as average (raw) scores. It is important that you take a moment to understand what these scores mean and how the results should be interpreted.

AVG is simply the average of the ratings that you received. The lowest possible score is a 1 (1 -Novice), and the highest possible score is a 5 (5 - Expert). In the sample above, the bar chart represents the average score from all rater groups.

Keep in mind that typical scores on most items fall between 3.6 and 4.2. Scores above this range should generally be considered "high" and scores below this range should generally be considered "low". Scores at or below 3.0 are almost always "low" or "very low" scores, regardless of what the rating scale might suggest.

Focusing on what you are good at and on what comes naturally to you is one of the most effective ways to be more successful.

As you consider your development goals, be sure to include a plan for how you will leverage and build on your strengths.

Highest-Rated Items

	1	2	3	4	5	SCORE
Strategic Management – Shared decision-making: Facilitate a structure of shared governance						5.0
Human Resources Leadership Skills – Performance management: Initiate corrective actions						5.0
Human Resources Leadership Skills – Performance management: Monitor staff for fitness for duty						5.0
Human Resources Leadership Skills – Performance management: Implement continual performance development						5.0
Human Resources Leadership Skills – Performance management: Terminate staff						5.0

Financial Management – Recognize the impact of reimbursement on revenue						5.0
Financial Management – Anticipate the effects of changes on reimbursement programs for patient care						5.0
Financial Management – Maximize care efficiency and throughput						5.0

Think about which of the following areas are important to your current role or your future career goals. Keep in mind, if you have a low score on something that does not come naturally to you and that is not essential to your success, then you will probably be better off focusing your development efforts elsewhere.

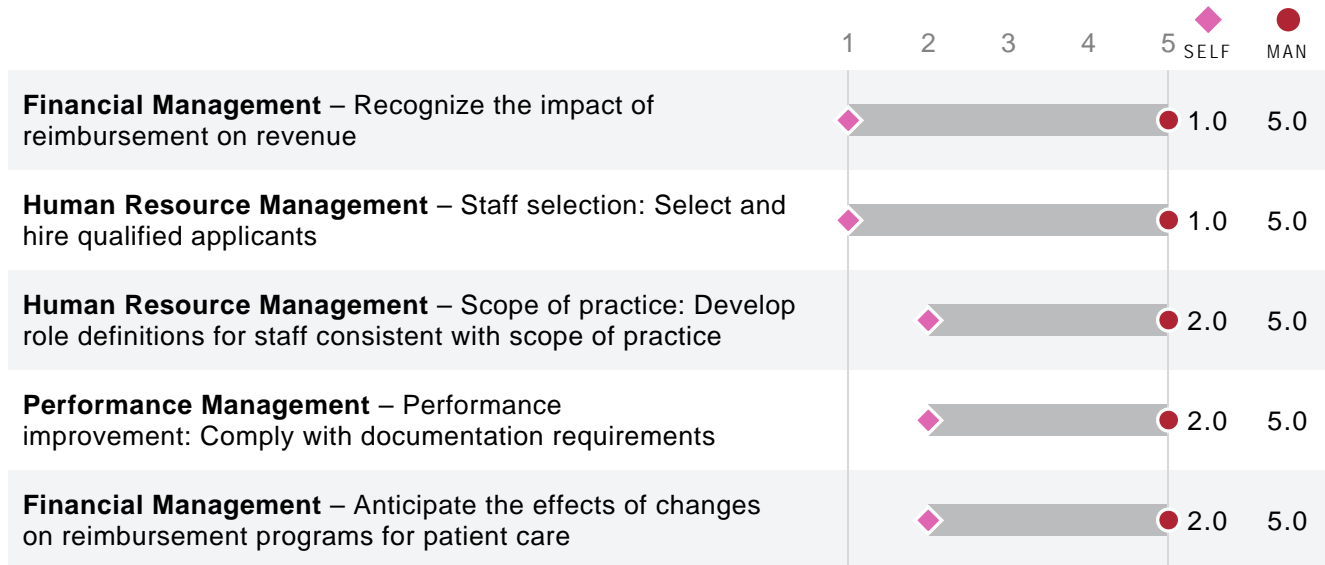

Nevertheless, be honest with yourself about things that might not be in your comfort zone or come naturally to you, but that are critical to your success. Focus your development efforts in those areas.
